

MACHINEGUN FIRE OVER BATTLELINE COVERING 25 MILES

Scout Planes See Partial Retreat of Invading Forces.

Referring to the President's proclamation, the general wrote to Murray:

"It is hoped and believed that the wishes of immediate and complete compliance with the proclamation will appeal to the American people and convince them immediately of that good sense of the members of your organization, and that you may convince them immediately of that fact."

The governor was understood to have sent a letter to Sheriff Chaffin, of Logan County, asking his cooperation in the plan.

This mission apparently asserted that the miners had to give up their arms and that when they accepted the terms of protection, they would be on a par with the rest of the state.

It was expected that the miners would be expected to accept the terms of protection, and that they would be on a par with the rest of the state.

President Harding's martial law proclamation which was to have been at noon Thursday did not become effective, being superseded in a sense by the joint appeal of Gov. Morgan and Brig. Gen. H. H. H.

Final Appeal to Men.—President Harding's martial law proclamation which was to have been at noon Thursday did not become effective, being superseded in a sense by the joint appeal of Gov. Morgan and Brig. Gen. H. H. H.

A large force of miners from Whitesville, Boone County, was reported to have joined the attacking forces near Blair, and throughout the day the miners in that locality poured a persistent rifle fire into the positions of the defenders amid the rocks and shallow trenches on the top of the ridge.

Sheriff Chaffin's army received a reinforcement of reinforcements this morning from the Blair and Bluefield forces, and the men immediately were rushed to positions on the ridge to relieve men who had been there for twenty-four hours.

Only a steady machine gun fire against the miners' hiding places at the foot of the ridge about Blair restrained the attackers from making a dash at the defenders' positions during today's fighting.

It was reported that during yesterday's fighting the miners advanced nearly two miles on a five-mile line before being checked by machine gun fire.

BUILDING RECORD SHOWS INCREASE

Construction of 204 brick dwellings in Washington during August doubled the number built in August, 1920, according to the monthly report of John W. Oehmann, acting building inspector, submitted to the commissioners yesterday.

There were 805 building permits issued during the month and the building cost, estimated at $3,308,185, is an increase of $269,211 over the corresponding month last year and a gain of $2,035,865 over July, 1921. More than three-fourths of the building was done in the suburbs and Northwest. There were 184 dwellings and 218 garages built.

Sinn Fein Reply Reaches Premier In Scotch Hills

Irish Envoy at Garloch, Where Lloyd George Spends Holiday.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald and Chicago Tribune.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—(Daily Express.)—The Sinn Fein reply to Prime Minister Lloyd George is now in the hands of the prime minister, it having been taken direct to Scotland last night by Robert Barton and Joseph McGrath, Irish republican envoys, who slipped out of Dublin quietly and not far from the Sinn Fein headquarters in the Scotch hills. They took a fifty-mile drive to Garloch where the prime minister is spending his holiday.

Garloch is thirty miles from the nearest railway, there is no telephone, and there is only one telegraph wire.

Belfast is much quieter today, owing to the fact that the troops are now in control of the situation. The authorities hope that the worst of the rioting is now over.

The total casualties are officially given as 10 killed and 130 wounded, but the real total is certainly much larger. Among the killed last night was a boy who was sitting on a wall watching the troops pass. His four companions were all wounded.

The Sinn Fein men threatened to stop work unless proper protection is afforded them, but the commanding officer of the troops offered to put a guard on each car.

The only thing this morning was when a few shots were fired at Catholic workmen entering a tobacco factory on York street, but the arrival of troops instantly cleared the street.

WINCHESTER FIRE LOSS NEAR $60,000

Dozen Firemen Overcome by Intense Heat in Cooper- age Plant.

WINCHESTER, Va., Sept. 1.—Fire this afternoon destroyed the plant of the Winchester Cooperage Company, owned by W. A. Nigges and others, of Charlottesville, Va., causing a loss of approximately $60,000, partly insured.

The plant consisted of three large frame buildings, containing about 20,000 apple barrels and great stores of raw material. Prompt work of firemen kept the flames from nearby buildings and from the large oil and gasoline tanks not far distant. A dozen or more firemen were overcome by the intense heat, which also delayed traffic for a while on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

TRYING TO AVOID MORE BLOODSHED BY PEACE OFFER

been confiscated in this territory by the miners who are applying the seizures to their own use.

One of the most significant reports received here at a late hour this evening was that the miners during yesterday's battle advanced nearly two miles along a front five miles long. This advance was checked by a steady and well-directed machine gun fire, which is reported to have mowed down the miners in several sections where the attackers daringly sought to charge points on the ridge where Sheriff Chaffin's volunteers were entrenched.

Word received here from Charleston tonight was that the military headquarters there had made a request to the War Department in Washington to delay the sending of regular troops into the trouble zone in order to permit the use of the several thousand citizen volunteers who are now pouring into this territory seeking permission to battle for the State against the attacking hordes of miners.

An air squadron sent by President Harding for the declaration of martial law, a squadron of 13 aeroplanes from Langley Field, a. were ordered to West Virginia to make observations over the battle line.

The entire situation, officials in Washington claimed during the day, was clouded by the varying nature of the reports received from both camps. There was a general tendency to regard reports of bloody battles fought among the misty mountain ranges as results of local hysteria and the tendency of local sheriffs to exaggerate the seriousness of the situation.

Word From Front Received Here.

Among the most startling telegrams was one signed W. R. Thurmon, from Logan. It said:

"Unless President Harding sends troops by midnight tonight the town of Logan will be attacked by an army of from four to eight thousand Reds and great loss of life and property sustained."

Another, from former Gov. William A. MacCorkle, who said: "The whole mining country is practically on the march toward the seat of trouble. The fighting is going ahead in Logan County. I regard the situation as highly charged and troops should be hurried in just as rapidly as possible. I think this is the only means of avoiding bloodshed."

Former Gov. Henry D. Hatfield wired:

"The State authorities had they been alert might have coped with the situation in the beginning, but it is now beyond their control. Many lives of innocent people will unquestionably be sacrificed within the next twelve hours unless Federal troops are dispatched."

"The proclamation is being contemptuously ignored. It attacks made before arrival of Federal troops I fear slaughter will be dreadful."

Mount Rainier's Carnival Draws Crowds Nightly

MOUNT RAINIER, Md., Sept. 1.—Hundreds of persons from this city, Brentwood, Hyattsville, Riverdale and nearby communities and Washington are nightly attending the big carnival just west of the electric railway station here under the auspices of the citizens' association for the benefit of the municipality.

Dancing and other features are being offered in addition to numerous special attractions. Former Sgt. Ben Levin, U. S. M. C., a Hyattsville boy, is rendering a song and dance act each evening which is making a big hit.

A special program has been prepared for Labor Day. An automobile parade directed by Lou Gordon will be a feature. Afterward a chicken dinner will be served under the direction of Mrs. Jack LaComplan. The week of September 12-17 will be featured by the presence of a recently invented machine for projecting motion pictures in the sunlight. The machine is mounted on a truck on which also is the amplifier used by President Harding in his inaugural address.

Program to Cover Cost Of Benefit Ball Game

Programs for the Police-Home Defense game to be played Monday at American League Park are now being prepared by Rudolph Joseph, director of the Home Defense League. Maj. Gessford, superintendent of police, announced yesterday.

Maj. Gessford said that sale of these programs pays all expenses of the contest, as all ticket receipts are turned into the police relief fund for widows and orphans of policemen.

Court Martial Penalties.—The 1914 Senatorial committee officially reported that during the period of martial law the court-martial, before which offenders were tried, seemed itself bound only by the orders of the commander in chief, the governor of the State, and in no sense bound to observe the Constitution of the United States or the statutes of West Virginia relative to the trial and punishment of parties charged with crime. It was found that the court-martial inflicted punishments unknown to the statutes or in excess of the punishment provided for such offenses under the laws of the State.

"The trouble in West Virginia will not be cured by forcing men into submission while allowing continuance of the evils against which they have so desperately protested. I join with all Americans in deprecating the violence in that State, but it is worse than useless to deal with the surface manifestations while allowing the deep, underlying plutocratic criminality to continue."

"The United States government can do a great service by destroying government by gunmen, by restoring civil government uncorrupted by coal mine autocracy and by giving to the miners an opportunity to secure justice and to be free from persecution in enjoying their constitutional rights."

"Unless the government does this it adds to the shameful record and helps to perpetuate the era of crime and brutality."

COL. PRICE'S SON GIVEN CADETSHIP

Hardin B. Price, 16-year-old son of Col. J. H. Price, stationed at Washington Barracks, was yesterday named by President Harding as one of two selected from the country at large to take the competitive examination for entrance to West Point.

Hardin Price received his high school diploma in Leavenworth, Kan., at the age of 14. He has completed one year of college academic work and will enter the Columbia Preparatory School at the opening of the semester. Col. Price is a student at the Army War College.

Americans Join Lodges at Rate Of Million Yearly

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 31.—The American people are still "the noblest joiners of them all," according to records of the National Fraternal Congress in session here Thursday.

"They like to give four slow knocks at the secret portals of a lodge hall with the privilege of saluting the most unabated high generalissimo and establishing themselves in a corner of the inner circle to watch the drill team stamp the dust out of the carpet."

"We're growing a million a year right along," said George R. Kirby, president of the organization.

"There's always some member with a friend he wants to get in and they keep right on bringing on new ones."

MARCONI THINKS MARS SENT CALL

Declares Inventor Believes Mysterious Message Was From Planet.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—J. C. H. MacBeth, London manager of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., today startled members of the Rotary Club of New York in a speech at a luncheon by the announcement that Signor Marconi believed he had intercepted messages from Mars.

"The wireless inventor, he said, while making a series of atmospheric experiments aboard his yacht, the Elettra, in the Mediterranean several months ago, discovered wireless wave lengths far in excess of those used by the highest powered radio stations in the world. These he and other wireless experts believed that Mars was trying to communicate with us."

MacBeth declared that the maximum length of waves produced in the world today is 14,000 metres. He said that the ones picked up by Marconi have been found to be about 150,000 meters. He said that their regularity disproved any belief that they are produced by electrical disturbances in the world. These he and other wireless experts believed that Mars was trying to communicate with us."

TARIFF REBUKE TO U. S., CANADA PREMIER'S CRY

Meighen Declares Reci- procity Agreements Are Being Violated.

By WILLIAM SLAVENS McNUTT.
(By United News Staff Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Can., Sept. 1.—Premier Meighen announced Thursday night his intention to dissolve parliament and go before the country on the issue of a high tariff.

In his speech at London, Ont., announcing his decision, he emphasized the necessity of tariff barriers to meet the protectionist policy of the United States.

It is inevitable that the Fordney tariff bill will be a campaign deacon for the Premier and that the long dead reciprocity issue of Taft's administration will be revived by the Liberals from Quebec and the farmer party in the Prairie provinces. The farmers in the West particularly want reciprocity with the United States.

New Tariff Barrier.

The new tariff barrier against cattle and wheat has hit them hard. Citing instances where the United States had made reciprocal agreements with Canada and failed to keep them in force more than a few months the Premier declared that Canadian reciprocity could be built on no such shifty foundation.

"There is one great truth inherent in our very geography," he said, "and it is this—we must never drift into a position where we become dependent on the fiscal decisions of another nation, and that nation the most aggressive commercial entity on earth."

Relations Before Voters.—It is inevitable that the coming election will bring into question the relations between the United States and Canada more keenly than at any time since the great reciprocity fight of 1911. The campaign, indeed, will be waged along the direct trail blazed in that memorable battle.

Incidentally, the premier's announcement of his intention is the first definite evidence that he will not attend the disarmament conference at Washington.
